

German Concentration and Death Camps 1933-1945

From the depths of the mirror, a corpse gazed back at me. The look in his eyes, as they stared into mine, has never left me. Elie Wiesel, Camp survivor

1. Which country had the most concentration camps?
2. Which country do you think had the first camps? Why?
3. How many death camps are there? What are their names?
4. Why do you think all the death camps were located in Poland?
5. Which concentration and/or death camp is located furthest north?
6. Which concentration and/or death camp is located furthest south?
7. What is the distance between the above 2 camps?
8. Poland, France, and The Netherlands all fought on the Allied side during the war. Why are there German camps located in these countries?
9. According to the caption under the map, why does Elie Wiesel describe his reflection in the mirror as a corpse?
10. This entrance gate to Dachau reads "Work will make you free." Is this a truthful saying? EXPLAIN!

